TERMS & CONDITIONS

BundleUpOTT | Website, orders, subscriptions and payments

Effective date: 30 October 2026

1. Acceptance of These Terms

These Terms & Conditions govern your access to and use of the BundleUpOTT website and services. By browsing the website, placing an order or using a service, you agree to these Terms and applicable laws.

2. Services and Subscription Bundles

BundleUpOTT may display subscription bundles, plans or access options that include third-party platforms or services. The inclusions, duration, price and conditions are those shown on the relevant product or checkout page when you place your order. Third-party features, availability and access rules may change.

3. Customer Information and Account Responsibility

You agree to provide accurate, current and complete contact and order information. You are responsible for checking that your email address and mobile number are correct. Do not misuse the website, attempt unauthorised access, interfere with its operation, submit false payment information or use the services unlawfully.

4. Prices, Orders and Payments

Prices and applicable charges are displayed on the website or at checkout. An order is subject to acceptance and successful payment verification. We may correct obvious pricing or listing errors and contact you if an order is affected. Payments may be processed by third-party providers, whose instructions you must follow.

5. Payment Verification and Order Status

A bank debit, payment screenshot or payment initiation alone may not mean an order has been successfully verified in our system. If an order is pending or awaiting verification, we may need to verify the transaction using available payment-provider records or other permitted confirmation methods. Do not make repeated payments for the same order without first contacting support.

An order is confirmed only when we have verified payment and updated the order status, or otherwise confirmed acceptance to you. If payment is debited but the order remains pending, contact support with your order ID and transaction/reference details.

6. Fulfilment and Access

After payment verification, we will take reasonable steps to provide the purchased subscription or access details through the contact method or process described on the website. Delivery times may vary due to provider systems, verification checks, technical issues or circumstances beyond our reasonable control.

Use access details only as permitted by the relevant service terms and plan description. Do not resell, share, transfer or misuse access unless the product description expressly permits it.

7. Cancellations, Refunds and Failed Payments

For a cancellation, failed payment, duplicate payment, incorrect order or non-delivery, contact support promptly with your order ID and relevant transaction details.

Refund requests will be reviewed based on order status, whether service or access has been delivered or activated, the reason for the request, relevant third-party provider conditions and applicable consumer-protection laws. Approved refunds will generally be processed through the original payment method or another lawful method, subject to payment-provider timelines.

Nothing in these Terms excludes any refund, replacement or other right that cannot lawfully be excluded.

8. Third-Party Platforms and Providers

Some bundles may involve third-party platforms, content providers, payment gateways or messaging services. Those services may have separate terms, eligibility rules, availability, privacy policies and restrictions. You must comply with applicable third-party terms. We do not control third-party platforms and are not responsible for their changes, outages or decisions, except where responsibility cannot be excluded by law.

9. Website Availability and Changes

We may update, suspend or modify website features, listings or services to maintain or improve the platform, comply with law or respond to provider changes. We will take reasonable steps to minimise disruption where practicable.

10. Intellectual Property

The website's original text, design, branding, graphics and software are owned by or licensed to us, unless otherwise stated. You may not copy, reproduce, distribute, modify or commercially exploit these materials without prior written permission. Third-party names and logos belong to their respective owners.

11. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, we will not be liable for indirect or consequential loss arising from use of the website or third-party services. Nothing limits liability where such limitation is prohibited by law, including consumer rights and remedies.

12. Suspension or Termination

We may restrict or suspend access where reasonably necessary to investigate suspected fraud, unlawful activity, security risks, misuse or a material breach of these Terms. This does not affect rights or obligations accrued before suspension or termination.

13. Governing Law and Disputes

These Terms are governed by the laws of India. Subject to mandatory consumer-protection rights and applicable law, disputes will be subject to the jurisdiction of competent courts in India.

14. Changes to These Terms

We may revise these Terms from time to time. The latest version will be posted on the website with its effective date.
